

The Little Paint Man says:

When you want fresh paint go to HALL'S and buy some; don't take it off the lawn seats because you can get it for nothing. By the way, The Little Paint Man wants to know if your floors do not need touching up? If they do, Sherwin-Williams Porch floor, Inside Floor or Floorlac will interest you. Finishes that cover well and dry quickly, and last but not least, every can has the name Sherwin-Williams on it, and that settles the question of quality.

Sweet Violets Lose To Abe's Team--Meat-ing Tonight

The Aalas defeated the crack Sweet Violets yesterday afternoon at Aala Park. The first game of the Riverside Junior League was forfeited to the Chinese Alohas. The Orientals didn't show up on account of the C. A. C. loss. The star pitcher, A. Asam, twirled a good and steady game, striking out six men. Little Arcia played a crack first base. Sam Hop did not step on a banana peel and he had a glove as big as a basket out in center field. It is a treat to see him catching cloud-skimmers while running backwards. In the first canto the Sweet Violets scored the first run, and the Aalas scored four runs in three innings. After that they smashed Nick Peterson for five more. Wm. Hoopal played a very good game in left field. The next game between the Alohas and the Aalas will be an interesting contest. In their last game the Aalas had to play thirteen innings before they defeated the sons of Nippon. Manager C. K. Abe will give his boys a snappy practice this week, so they will be in good condition, and will try to break the Riverside Senior record of a 17-inning game. The president of the Riverside Junior League will depart for the shores of Maui soon and therefore will hold a meeting tonight in A. L. C. Atkinson's office, Judd building, to discuss some very important business concerning the league.

OCEAN VIEWS ARE THERE WITH THE SLUGGING STICK

In the first championship game of the season, the Ocean Views awaited out a corking victory by the score of 17 to 10. The score was 10-all in the first part of the ninth, but the Views were all to the good with the strong-arm work, slugging out seven big runs before they were sent back to the bench. The Policemen were unable to do anything in their half of the inning. The tale:

GOOD BALL FURNISHED BY KAPIOLANI LEAGUE

Two good games of baseball were played at the Kapiolani League grounds yesterday. In the first contest the Lehighs sprung a surprise on their opponent by defeating the Twilights to the tune of 6 to 2. The Highlands were the lucky boys in the second game and won from the Young Tidal Waves by the close score of 3 to 2. This game was the best of the afternoon by far.

The scores were as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

POLITICS IN HAMAKUA

Hilo, March 24.—The Tribune says: Politics in Hamakua must be reaching an acute stage inasmuch as Judge Henry Hall, once considered as the guide, philosopher and friend of Supervisor W. N. Purdy, has taken the aid of the courts to make Purdy pay a bill long owing for ordinary necessities of life.

The proceedings by which Judge Hall was able to obtain a judgment and garnishee order on Supervisor Purdy's salary as such were out of the ordinary. Being District Judge himself, and also being the creditor of Supervisor Purdy to the extent of $144,000, Judge Hall could not very well sit in judgment on a case in which he was himself interested. He took the matter to Judge Parsons' Circuit Judge of the Fourth Circuit, with the result that A. Fernandez, formerly a Supervisor and a member of the Legislature, was appointed acting District magistrate of Hamakua to sit in his particular case. Fernandez heard the evidence and issued a garnishee order on the County Auditor C. K. Maguire for the amount involved. So thus it happens that the Hamakua representative who managed to put his district almost hopelessly in debt does not have the trouble of collecting the convenient $50 a month for a few months at all events.

ALOHA TO THE BOYS

Hilo, March 24.—The Club House at 8 1/2 Miles, Oahu, was the scene of great festivity last Saturday evening when a party of friends gathered to show Jack Phillips and Ernest Raeliff just what they thought of them for deciding to go away. John Watt, manager of Oahu Plantation, presided and those about the board were J. N. Phillips, E. L. Rackliff, W. H. Hinesman, A. M. Boyle, R. D. Junken, Dr. Fred Irwin, A. J. Watt, James Ingals, I. Iwasaki, B. Spencer, F. J. Williams, D. G. Supe, H. A. Gerlach, A. A. Forsyth, W. S. Ward, C. Gaiometti, H. W. Fincke, C. J. Giddings, H. Dent, H. Fisher, F. B. Weeks, F. W. Maage, E. Soper, J. S. Grace, F. A. Burningham, Charles Artole, G. A. Cool, F. Sakamaki and George Duncan.

The bill of fare was long and varied and ample justice was done it by the good trencher-men gathered to do honor to two good fellows. The inned pig was pronounced to be the most delicious ever produced and it is calculated that even when in far off New Zealand Jack Phillips will remember it.

Toasts varied the details of the dinner and not one of those present escaped making a speech. The affair wound up with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

CHINESE BOYS ARE ROYAL HOSTS

Toast Each Other At Luau Yesterday Afternoon

The grand luau given yesterday by the Chinese Athletic Club, the winners of the championship of the league for the season of 1907, was one of the greatest successes of its kind that has ever been attempted in this city. The Chinese boys are proud of the fact that they are now the holders of the Chillingworth cup, and they showed it. They are good sportsmen, and deserve great credit for the manner of carrying things out throughout. A great many complimentary remarks were passed on account of the excellent politeness of the Chinese boys in the handling of their many guests yesterday. The league president, of course, sat at the head of the table, and at his side were the president of the C. A. C., with another president at his other side.

The lads made themselves popular and earned for themselves a name as royal hosts, for there are few who attended the luau yesterday who will soon forget the excellent treatment accorded them.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

There is a big husky down on the oil-steamer Santa Maria who says he can put it all over any local wrestler with the greatest of ease. He also informs any and everybody that he is going to stop off here on the next trip of the vessel, bring McLaughlin down from the Coast, and show these "rubes" some real wrestling. Let him prove himself in a contest with any one out of a dozen local willing brawlers—and then talk.

"Sam" Weller brought back a thoroughbred fox terrier when he arrived here the other day. The canine is one of the best ever seen in the city. It answers to the name of "Trump."

HILO RECEIVED QUEEN ROYALLY

Queen Liliuokalani, one of the passengers on the new Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea which arrived at Hilo last Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, received a royal reception by the enthusiastic Hiloites. The wharf was thickly crowded. When the Mauna Kea approached Kauai, a well known oiler man, commenced to blow in honor of the Queen, who was standing on the deck. The officers and the members of the Liliuokalani, Kaula, and Kauhamaun societies, were on the wharf. They were very happy to see the Queen, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Nawahi and Mrs. J. Aca, was conveyed to Nawahi residence on School street. The survey which contained the royal party was artistically decorated with malie. On Thursday morning a reception was given by the Queen to the members of the Hawaiian societies. Ex-Governor Baker and Mrs. J. Aca assisted the Queen in receiving while Mrs. Nawahi received the guests. Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Emily Conradi, presidents of the societies, were on hand to see that all the members were presented to the Queen.

Sheriff Keolanui placed a number of the police officers at the disposal of the Queen. All the county officials were present and made the function one of the notable gatherings in Hilo for many years.

Mrs. Mary Shipman, Mrs. Judge Hapai and Rev. S. Desha also gave a very elaborate lunch in the afternoon in honor of the Queen. The hookups were numerous and a good many of which were brought back last Saturday. During the Queen's stay at Hilo she was kept busy receiving callers.

Here is an extract from a letter received in today's mail from Major Ven Vilet, writing from Fort Lisens, Alaska: "Snow six feet on level and still falling. Oh, for the waters of Waikiki and the state of the South Sea Islanders."

Hapai, one of the "guards" of Oahu prison, died yesterday afternoon. Hapai was employed in the postoffice during the monarchy, but resigned when the kingdom was overthrown.

HAPAI CASE ARGUED

The Hapai case was argued in the Supreme Court this morning and submitted. This is the case upon which depends the validity of the clause in the land laws requiring settlers to live upon the land. Judge Hapai of Hawaii took up one of the Oloa lots, but continued to reside in Hilo. The Land Department notified him to surrender the lot on the ground that he had failed to comply with the requirements, but the Judge refused. Suit was brought in the Circuit Court of the Third Circuit to compel him to vacate, but the judge of that court held that he could not be ousted. The Territory appealed to the Supreme Court. A decision may be expected within a short time.
